

Station manager moves on to Alta.; [Final Edition]

Valerie Wilson. Nanaimo Daily News. Nanaimo, B.C.: Feb 16, 2007. pg. B.6

YOU GET TO PICK

Tigh Na Mara Seaside Spa Resort in Parksville is letting the customer decide the price of its new Endless Tapas menu during the month of February, says Dant Hirsch, general manager.

"We feel strong enough about what we're providing our customers, that we're willing to let them pay what they feel its worth," he said.

Sous chef Rick Davidson has taken the best that Vancouver Island has to offer -- from Fanny Bay oysters to Saltspring Island mussels to Qualicum cheese, and created a 29-item West Coast Tapas menu.

The experience is part of a tri-fecta in pampering perfection at the spa that starts with a soak in a 2,500 sq. ft. mineral bath.

This relaxing soak is followed by the tranquility of the Relaxation Lounge and topped off with a dining experience in the Treetop Tapas and Grill.

- Contact Valerie Wilson with your business news stories via e- mail at VWilson@nanaimodailynews.com or call 250-729-4235. Her column appears on Fridays on the Finance page.